THE PLACE FOR MONEY

"Nearly fifteen hundred dollars was stolen the other night from three people in Butler County, Pa., whose ages range from sixty-four to seventy-seven, old enough and with experiences of others to know that it isn't safe, especially in these times, to keep so much money in the house."

"The banks of the cities are easily accessible to people living in the country and offer the best protection by depositors, who by banking their spare money will consult their own interests and at the same time do their share of service to the public by keeping money where it may do some good in business."

SCAB AND BLACK ROT IN APPLE ORCHARDS

The prevalence of apple scab and black rot during the season of 1920 will make it necessary for apple growers to combat these diseases this year, according to the department of botany at the Ohio experiment station. The amount of apple scab in 1920 was also much greater than in 1919.

Orchardists, however, have worked out an effective spray to control apple scab and black rot when present in apples. It is known as a 4-6-50 formula of Bordeaux mixture and used as a pre-blossom spray upon the cluster buds when they first show pink. It is advisable to use Bordeaux even though a dormant spray of strong lime-sulphur has not been used in any system of spraying. This spray may be made without risk of injury to foliage or fruit even though no scab or black rot is present. These diseases carry over from year to year on the dead leaves; they developed heavily during the 1920 season of cool, rainy weather. Complete directions for spraying for black rot or apple scab may be secured from the Ohio Experiment Station, Wooster.

SUMMER TIME

Listen, little children
The sun is shining bright
And little birds in the treetops,
Are singing with all their might.
The air is fresh and mild and clear,
The pretty flowers are blooming,
And violets are all white and blue
The soft air is perfuming.
The roses in the garden
Are blooming bright and gay,
And I often sit and watch them
When I grow too tired of play.
Sometimes mother sits there with me—
She works and sews beneath the tree,
Says she's come to see the flowers,
But she mostly watches me.
Soon the flowers will be passing
Not much longer can they stay.
Then, let us say goodbye to summer
For she scampers quite away.

GIANT BOMBING PLANE

United States Army Is Building a New Type of Machine.

Capable of Sinking Hostile Battleship 650 Miles Out, Officer Tells Senate Committee.

Washington, D. C.—The army is building a new type of giant bombing plane capable of sinking any hostile dreadnaught that ventures within 650 miles of American shores.

This assertion was made before the senate military affairs committee by Col. T. H. Bane, army aviation service.

Two of these planes are already nearing completion. They will be the biggest heavier-than-air machines in existence, and capable of carrying a bomb weighing 10,000 pounds. They will cost $375,000.

"Is there any conceded limit to the size of those planes?" Senator Leavitt, Wisconsin, asked.

"We have not reached it yet,"

"Is it reasonably possible that they may attain such size as to make destruction of any dreadnaught beyond question?" Mr. Lenroot asked.

"Why, I believe that they have gotten to that point already," Col. Bane said. "There is one way to decide that, and that is to try it."

"You think they can destroy any dreadnaught?" Senator McKellar, Tennessee, asked.

"Absolutely," Col. Bane replied.

The committee was so impressed with this and other testimony that it increased the appropriation of $10,000,000 made by the house for aircraft to $23,000,000, $5,000,000 to be spent in experiments and $7,000,000 for new aircraft.

NEW LIFE-SAVING DEVICE

A successful test of a new life-saving device, the invention of M. Pans, a veteran of the great war, was made at the Eiffel tower in Paris recently. The apparatus makes possible a complete stop while climbing a rope or using it in descent. The demonstration was performed by M. Pans for the Paris fire brigade, which is considering the adoption of the apparatus, which consists of a sort of harness and seat, and a steel pulley which slides over the rope. It can be manipulated by the person ascending or descending or by persons on the ground. The photograph shows the inventor, M. Pans, with his apparatus after the experiment.

BULLDOG AND COON CHUMS

Pets Remove Potatoes From Box to Make Bank—Live in Perfect Harmony.

Wiggins, Miss.—T. J. Martin, mayor of Wiggins, whose affection for strange and unusual pets is well known, has in his possession a pet coon that has brought up with a bulldog. The two animals live in perfect harmony, the bulldog playing with the coon and the coon accepting his cuffs with the greatest playfulness.

Martin's potato bin was directly under the cage of the coon. The coon had been in captivity about three months and was often seen during the day playing on the walk with the mayor's bull pup.

One night the coon escaped from the cage. It is believed with the aid of the dog. Several slats were pried off, and the little animal could not have done the work alone.

The next morning every potato in the bin directly below the cage of the coon had been removed and placed in a box on the opposite side of the store. In the old potato bin the coon and the bull pup were sleeping.

CAN'T ATTEND MOVIES: SUES

Jones, a farmer, refused to permit her to attend movies; to read novels or daily papers; to wear short skirts, high heels or cosmetics, or to go calling on Sunday, Mrs. Jones has brought suit for divorce on grounds of cruelty. Mrs. Jones also asserts that her husband insisted that she join the Latter Day Saints church.

Jones is 78 years old and his wife is 19. Jones has been married four times.
